ANTOLA CASA

Antola Casa Detersivi, the company Antola House detergents was born in the 80s in Tuscany.

Starting from the early years, the objective was of offering a high quality product, and increasing its experience in sector, thanks to a persevering research and development, Antola Casa Detersivi has expanded its range of products, arriving to those containing bleach and getting famous products as the bleach for colored fabrics with no chlorine. In the 90s the range of products Antola Casa Detersivi widens again and it was extended with the line of home cleaning products, from floor detergents and from degreasers, until you get to the formula for cleaning of glass that still receives great success nationally.

Great satisfaction and recognition in Italy were received by the production of liquid soap for automatic Washing laundry and for handmade laundry and with the Marseille soap, which the company Antola Casa Detersivi can boast of having been among the first to recognize as high commercial value. It's in the late 90s that Antola Casa Detersivi focuses its forces, its know-how and professionalism in the production of detergents liquids, to be able to give their consumers with quality products and keeping up with the times.

From the production of detergents, the primary activity of the company, it reached market share bigger and bigger, expanding its sales network both on small and on large retail chains across the country, going on sales inside shops of best Italian food chains and with results and recognition.

Moreover, thanks to know-how and experience gained from all the company's human resources, Antola House gets the confidence of bigger chains and of other bigger companies that rely on Antola for the production with their private label.

Antola Casa Detersivi is the mother company that incorporates all kinds of products: its logo is now known by most end consumers and it is recognized on the shelves of retailers.

Antola Casa Detersivi has always had the main objective of satisfy the customer, as evidenced by the endless care and attention that the Company dedicate to the research for new components, fragrances and solutions. In effect to Get to high-quality products with an excellent relationship with the final price is the primary objective of the company.

Aware of the importance of the image, Antola Casa Detersivi has put great attention to the aesthetic aspect of the brand, through attention to detail and the search for new packaging and new graphic creations which complete the quality of materials products with quality visual aesthetics. Attentive, then to each label, to the color and to clarity of the entries, Antola Casa Detersivi is aware that to attract attention on the shelf serves a complete and efficient mix: the aesthetic quality and the actual quality of the product.

Focus of the company is to modernize but with style, with an eye to the past that face shine from every product the desire of tradition and innovation that each product Antola Casa Detersivi has incorporated in its interior.

In 2007 Antola House acquired the brand Pet & Clean and BLIX was identified as the flagship of the Company.

The special formula of Pet & Clean, designed to make better the life with animals at home, makes it a product as one of more required by end-consumers, increasingly aware of sanitation needs and increasingly linked cohabitation to our four-legged friends.

Brands completely ecological for laundry and for surface cleaning with herbs and plants and of quick and almost complete biodegradability are GLUCONATURA, FORZA NATURA, MARSIGLIA NATURAL and SAPONARIA. These are brands completely of internal property of ANTOLA CASA DETERSIVI.

These brands are directed to the preservation of the environment through the development of formulations that ensure the washing power even using environmentally friendly materials. Each fragrance is derived by the use of essential oils, in these cases.

Their natural origin has been certified from best Italian Universities.

The assortment of Antola Casa Detergents is completed by The Brand Convenience: very good products with a very cheap prices.
